KLEBERG COUNTY SHERIFF'S MOUNTED PATROL SUPPORTS COMMUNITY- With money obtained through its annual King Ranch Trailride held each March, the Kleberg County Sheriff's Mounted Patrol takes the opportunity to support worthwhile area projects. Recently, KCSMP delivered a check for $500 to Eagle Boy Scout Kenneth Cox aiding him in the purchase of backpacks filled with school supplies for the children of mothers residing at the local Women's Shelter. Earlier in the year the patrol donated $1000 to the Retama boy scout troupe to replace burglarized equipment and gave the same amount to the Sheriff's Youth Programs. Bonded by a mutual love of horses, KCSMP continues to contribute to the betterment of the Kingsville community through activities such as volunteering additional security at the high school and college football games. Hispanic Heritage Month packed with activities

Events range from speakers to films to banquets

By Julie Navejar
Texas A&M-Kingsville
 The Hispanic Heritage Committee at Texas A&M University-Kingsville has scheduled a wide array of activities for the month. Hispanic Heritage Month begins each year on Diez y Seis, Sept. 15, the anniversary of independence for the five Latin American countries of Costa Rica, El Salvador, Guatemala, Honduras and Nicaragua. This year, Tejano Heritage Month activities are included in the schedule. This year's activities include:
Monday, September 21 Homero Vera, director of the Kenedy Museum, will present The Greatest Generation-A Tejano Perspective at 2:30 p.m. in room 219AB of the MSUB.

Thursday, October 1 Graduate student Jennifer Correa will present Racialized Social Construction of Mexican Americans in the United States, 1836-2006 at 6 p.m. in room 219AB of the MSUB.
Friday, October 2 Classic Hispanic film posters from the South Texas Archives will be shown at the Jernigan Library from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m.
Saturday, October 3 The Second Annual Artwalk will be held in downtown Kingsville from 1 to 7 p.m. in the 200 and 300 blocks of Kleberg Avenue. This event features local artists from the university and the Playhouse of Design. Also featured will be the university's Jazz Band and Ballet Folklorico along with other performing groups from the city. Beginning at 1:30 there will be a Merienda (Mixer) at the Cherry Tree Tea Room.
Tuesday, October 6 Dan Arrellano, author and researcher, will present Tejano Roots: The Real Republic of Texas and the First and Seventh Flag over Texas at 2 p.m. in the Alumni Room of Honor in the MSUB and at 7 p.m. in room 301 of the Jernigan Library.
Wednesday, October 7 Marcos M. Flores, assistant principal in the Calallen Independent School District, will present Lost Letters from the Rio Grande: The Life of a 19th Century Tejano at 6:30 p.m. in room 219AB of the MSUB.

Thursday, October 8 The closing banquet for Hispanic Heritage will be held at 6:30 p.m. in ballroom A of the MSUB. The keynote speaker is Ernesto Nieto, founder and president of the National Hispanic Institute. Tickets are $12.
Friday, October 9 Dr. Manuel Flores, chair of the communication and theatre arts department will present Los Vaqueros: A True Tejano Legacy at noon in room 219AB of the MSUB.
Monday, October 12 Author Edna Campos Gravenhorst will have a reading and book signing at 2:30 p.m. in the University Bookstore. She will read from her book Te de Canela/ Cinnamon Tea.
Monday, October 12 The film, Barrio Tales, by Domingo Chavez, will be shown at 6 p.m. in the Little Theatre. Chavez is an alumnus of the university and will be in attendance at the showing.
Tuesday, October 13 Dr. Jerry Thompson, Regents professor at Texas A&M International University, will present Tejanos in the Blue and Grey: The U.S. Civil War in South Texas at 2:30 p.m. in the University Bookstore and at 7 p.m. in room 301 of the Jernigan Library.
