

Bishop community shows enormous support for Bishop CISD Homecoming Parade held Wednesday

A huge line of parade participants and spectators line-up on sixth street for this year's homecoming parade.

Bishop High School band members march along the parade route.

Bishop's sixth street was jam packed with spectators and parade participants.

BHS students and football players on this float represent the senior class

Bishop Elementary sixth grader Victoria Gonzales, along with her pet ferret named Timi, await the start of the parade.

Bishop Elementary fifth grader Jaylin Morales and her dad Marc Morales pose for a picture before the parade.

This parade participant represents the BHS senior class

BHS volleyball players pose for a quick photo while traveling along parade route.

Luehrs Junior High cheerleaders show support for the Badgers.

BHS Junior Class

BHS cheerleaders show lots of spirit.

Bishop City Hall shows Badger pride

BHS Class of 2012

Petronila Elementary School says Go Badgers.